

CLC in Europe: our common history

1967	From	Marian	Congregation	to CLC
December 1968				First meeting of the European equipe
August 1969	Chantilly	10 countries	44 participants	Deliberation on a possible European structure in order to help a maximum of people to live a more apostolic live in the spirit of the Exercises
1970	Manresa	13 countries	80 participants	Poor in a rich society
March 1971	Brussels	9 countries	31 participants	Organization, service and action in CLC
April 1972	London	11 countries	31 participants	Meeting of presidents and assistants
August 1974	Toulouse	11 countries	36 participants	Formation session on “liberation and development”
1977	Vienna			Post-Manila experiences: formation, social commitment, CLG with young people
1978	Hasselt	12 countries		Social commitment, youth CLC
1980	Dublin	12 countries		First European assembly Towards a world community at the service of one world
1981	Malta	12 countries	33 participants	Service today
1983	Luxemburg	14 countries	58	2. European Assembly The call to a world community
April 1984	Amersfoort		Eurolink meeting	Towards community and mission
May 1985	Rome	12 countries	40 participants	The Christians’ role in the world of today
August 1987	Salzburg	13 countries	40 participants	3. European Assembly On the way to a European community
April 1989	Hasselt	12 countries	30 participants	Formation towards mission
May 1991	Lisbon	13 countries		4. European Assembly General Principles
1995	Malta	14 +3 guest-countries		5. European Assembly
May 1999	Slovenia	15 +5 guest-countries		6. European Assembly
May 2004	Lille	17 +3 guest-countries		7. European Assembly

Since 1968 a “european equipe” and working groups were set up: Reflection and research on lay apostolic live, on Exercises + formation of lay guides, on liberation and development with three concerns: disarmament, world trade, migrants

In 1977 the actual European CLC structure was established: euroteam and eurolinks